The Survivor (A Mitch Rapp Novel Book 12) by Vince Flynn and Kyle Mills | Summary & Analysis

This is a Summary & Analysis. Kyle Mills, continues the Mitch Rapp series after the death of creator Vince Flynn. Readers will find much in its pages to celebrate: tense action, political intrigue, musings on right and wrong and consideration of what means are acceptable to achieve what ends. The book is enjoyable and promises more to come, which is sure to please long-time fans and new ones alike.

Kyle Mills's follows Mitch Rapp and other elite agents of the United States Central Intelligence Agency as they try to contain the damage caused by the betrayal of Joseph "Rick" Rickman. The deceased Rickman was a hyper-intelligent former agent who uncovered any number of state secrets and planned to disseminate them, undermining the effectiveness of the Agency entirely. Rapp and the other agents fight to secure the cache of secrets before Pakistani intelligence authorities can do the same and use the information to secure their country's grip on the Middle East. While the Americans ultimately succeed, they do not do so completely, and a high cost is paid for what is revealed. It offers readers an energetic, thrilling read that pushes forward the stories of Mitch Rapp and many other characters.
