How to Bake the Perfect Pecan Pie: Home for the Holidays, Book 1 Gina Henning

A warm pie. A tasty guy. Happy Thanksgiving indeed.

Lauren Hauser is home for the holidays, and she's been given a challenge: preparing her grandmother's pecan pie. The problem? Lauren's not famed for her baking skills. In fact, while her sister would win Star Baker every week, and her mom at least knows a sieve from a spatula, Lauren's baked goods have always been more dangerous than delicious!

Still, no Thanksgiving would be complete without dessert, so Lauren finds herself searching for pecans on Thanksgiving Eve. Stumbling into a gorgeous stranger laden down with bags of pecans seems like a holiday miracle. Despite Jack's kissable lips he's frostier than a snow cone and out of sight before she can say "Macy's Parade"!

As the clock counts down to Thanksgiving dinner, Lauren is running out of time. Without her grandmother's perfect pecan pie it won't be a very happy Thanksgiving! What Lauren needs is a knight in shining armor. It might just be that the magic of Thanksgiving will find her one after all.
