Get out of Your Head or You'll Go out of Your Mind Laura Miller Pearson

This is a book about life written in word pictures. The author writes that when we are born we enter Earth School University to work on our life Phd. We all have our own course of study, learning from all of our life experiences. Pearson's journey began in the early 1930s. She shares much of her amazing journey and how much she has learned about the power of the open hand of peace rather than the clenched fist of force. There are many examples of this in her book.
