How To Be A Fairy Kiera Flynn

Fairy is the name given to any form of nature spirit that is considered as supernatural. They have many other names like Pixie, Fey, Fae, Fay, or Elf. Mermaids, Dragons and Unicorns are also names given to fairies that do not look very similar to humans. All these mythical creatures are forms of nature spirit that are often described as metaphysical, supernatural or preternatural. These legendary creatures are also regarded as mythological beings but a lot of people today still believe that they really exist among us. Their descriptions also vary widely since there are many types of fairies and they can also assume many guises. Some people may describe them as tiny and wizened old men. Others may note that they are actually beautiful enchantresses who can lure men to their deaths.

But being one is much more than that and much more difficult than that. If you are one, you surely know that, if you are a newborn fairy you are probably alone and in need of help, Enter the magical realm of the fair creatures! I wrote this wonderful book, to guide you and tell you about everything you ought to know about our lives and world.
