“I Never Die: A Narrative Poem in Free Verse” is the journey of a young, beautiful, and self-destructive woman going through boyfriends like tissue paper, all the while desiring to die. Despite her suicidal tendencies throughout her life, she does not die. She cannot die because of her karmic debt. She comes to the conclusion that she is not a victim but a killer.

The underpinnings of the poem ask: Is there a God?, Was there a Jesus?, Is there reincarnation?, Where are humans on the soul-chain?, Where are animals on the soul-chain?, Is it possible to die?

The poem is a beautiful and haunting story of a girl trying to understand her point in space and time in the universe.
