The Pink Lizard Nancy Mure

Hillary is a chameleon who lives in the rain forest. She is pink. The other lizards reject her because of her color. Determined to befriend them, she displays stellar hunting and climbing skills but her efforts fail. Exhausted and rejected, Hillary becomes saddened causing her scales to change during the night. She catches a glimpse of her reflection, sees that she is no longer pink and approaches the lizards, who then befriend her. As Hillary grows happier, her scales turn pink again. THE PINK LIZARD is an inspiring story about accepting others based on merit. Its theme teaches that as different as we all may be, we are very much the same.
