Whether a trucker or a civilian, you'll love the rollicking adventures of Willard "Pop" Hink. "Pop Goes the Diesel" is inspired by true events. The fun, pedal-to-the-metal read follows Willard, a prime example of the Every Man American Trucker, and his free-spirited partner PeaJay on their wild travels throughout this great land. Willard, who is retired in the hills of East Tennessee, drove a truck for more than 30 years and the book is loosely (very loosely) based on his three decades of tales from the road. It is very family-friendly and is a humorous, enjoyable read for everyone from 8 to 88.
