Though based on a real person's life, Cries In The Night: Mimi's Travail is a purely fictional account of a Tiv girl emerging out of her pagan culture and making adaptations in her life, simply to survive. Her journey is not like that of Christian; rather, her pilgrimage is earth-bound, thrust upon her through life experiences that would crush most. Through her life experiences, she is introduced to Christianity. She comes to see the harsh reality of her father's pagan life; she experiences pain inflicted by brutal men but keeps alive with the hope of reuniting with her family Her search is for some kind of earthly haven, an education, and a return to help her own people.
