People all around the U.S. are earning extra cash (and getting free stuff) doing what all of us do on a weekly (if not daily basis)--shopping, eating out, and even going to the movies.

They get paid to shop, eat, and be entertained!

Who are these people?

They are called "Mystery Shoppers."

And if you think they have some special connection or some sort of degree that helps them get paid for shopping, you are mistaken.

Anyone, you and I included, can become a mystery shopper.

Mystery shopping is a form of market research where companies hire you to go out and pose as shoppers, diners, movie goers. Your job is simply to report back your experience.

And aside from the fact that you get free dining, free products of all kind, free car rentals, and even no-expense vacations, you will also get paid for it.

Mystery shoppers are used in most major industries and cities across the United States.

In this guide, you will learn:

- The history of mystery shopping
- How exactly mystery shopping works
- How to avoid scams
- How to find legit companies to shop for
- Plus the names and contact info of the Top 115 Trusted Mystery Shopping Companies that you can join for free right away to start getting paid shopping assignments.

Whether you love to shop (and complain) and want to get paid for it, are looking for easy and free ways to earn extra income, or just enjoy getting free stuff, this short and to-the-point book will help you

- earn thousands of dollars in cash

, plus

- tens of thousands of dollars in free food, entertainment, clothes, vacations, and other products

, all without any prior experience or any special expertise.

Get it today and start getting paid for doing what you love--shop!
