We all want healthy relationships. But first we need to become whole and healthy ourselves, since a relationship can only be as healthy as the least healthy person in it. With a candid and realistic approach, Love the Life You Live guides each of us to becoming a more complete person in Christ by helping us recognize our blind spots, learn to be more authentic, strengthen our social skills, put the past into perspective, and more. Chapters include self-tests and practical suggested activities.
