Ronald Reagan: A Life in Photographs David Elliot Cohen, Peter Robinson

This beautifully illustrated book commemorates the life and presidency of Ronald Wilson Reagan—who renewed America's sense of optimism, revived its economy, and won the Cold War without firing a single shot.

Peter Robinson, Reagan's special assistant and speechwriter, has written the text and captions, and the book features an artful combination of well-known and less-seen images; six annotated landmark speeches, including “Remarks on East-West Relations at the Brandenburg Gate” (1987); and an introduction by Newt and Callista Gingrich.
