He was watching me. I sensed his presence weeks before I saw him. Day after day, I peered out into the woods beside the lake house, unable to shake the feeling that someone was out there. But I never caught a glimpse of him. Eventually I convinced myself it had to be my imagination, that spending so much time by myself was starting to mess with my mind. I was so wrong. So begins Nathaniel Logan's story. Nate is a twenty-two-year-old college student, reeling after a recent breakup while struggling to find his way in the world. He's spending the summer at his stepdad's lake house in Northern California, where he's supposed to be finding himself. But what finds him instead will alter the course of Nate's life forever. This book is a paranormal erotic gay romance. It contains explicit language and graphic sex. For ADULT READERS only.
