"John stood up slowly as if in a daze. He had a new perspective on pleasure and was unsure how to feel. This conflicted with how he had viewed sexuality his entire life. Would he be fantasizing of other men at work now? Would his gaze linger on another man's bulge in public? I was already prepared for this, I would reassure him that it would be okay. I wanted him to bring more men home to fuck him."

Charlotte has indulged in many of her fantasies, but there has always been one that she couldn't bring up with her husband, John. John's new partner, Peter, misread the situation and kissed him, leaving their previously budding friendship in tatters. John confides in Charlotte, and is surprised when his wife seems thrilled. Instead of consoling her husband, Charlotte has other plans as she convinces her husband to partake in her most taboo fantasy. She wants to watch her husband take another man's load.
